BULL NEWS BRINGS BEAR PRICES.

Traders Puzzled by the Weak Tone of the Stock Market.

GOOD REPORTS ALL DAY.

But Even the Active Members of the List Fail to Make Response.

Wall Street, November 10. market to-day was rather a disapnt to the bulls. Favorable news ared in from the opening until the close market, and yet few of the active ocks made a net gain of even 1 per cent. The 'various stems of favorable news too numerous to mention, but among tem the most important are as follows: Senator Cullom's prediction that ng bill would pass Congress, the in Journal "Wants" in Canary Islands. 4.35 Journal "Wants" in Canar 4.374 Publisher New York Journal.

Dear Sir: We take pleasure in sending you an unsolicited testimonial as to the value of advertising in your paper. The Cotton Market.

The response in Liverpool to our firmness just before the close yesterday resulted in comparative strength at the opening here this morning, quotations being 1 to 4 points above last night's figures, since then, however, there has been a gradual sagging tendency. The movement in the South is very large, the more liberal receipts being due to the raising of some of the quarantine restrictions. The exceptionally fine weather that has prevailed in that section this Fall has increased the prospects for a large yield.

The cotton Market.

We can readily underdied testimonial as to the value of advertising in your paper.

Wants' are making such big gains every day. We are regular advertisers in the Sunday Journal, and receive results from all over the United States and Canada, and believe you will be very much interested to see a letter which we received from Mr. P. S. Bellamy, Los Palmas, Canary Islands. Journal "Wants" certainly cover the world. Your medium has been of great service to us in securing agents and salesmen, who have all been very satisfactory. Yours very truly.
